2007 ANNUAL EDUCATION CONFERENCE!

4 EASY WAYS TO GET MORE INVOLVED
IN OUR SECTION!

1. JOIN THE NEWER PROFESSIONALS LISTSERV

NALP hosts a variety of email discussion lists to facilitate member communication. These lists are available to NALP members only, ensuring that your questions and concerns are seen only by your NALP colleagues. One of the ways in which you can connect with fellow newcomers is by joining the "Newer Professionals Section" listserv. To join the listserv, go to <http://lists.nalp.org/cgi-bin/lyris.pl> and click on "NALP Lists." Then, click on "nalp-newprofessionals." Follow the instructions and you are all set to participate in the listserv! Once you have received an email confirming your membership, you can then save the listserv email address to your "contacts" list in your address book so that it will be easy for you to communicate with other new professionals.

☞ 2. WRITE AN ARTICLE FOR THE NALP BULLETIN

The Newcomer's Corner is a recurring section of the NALP Bulletin devoted to new legal career professionals. The Corner provides helpful tips and pointers on topics ranging from everyday tasks like organization to broader issues like networking. Most importantly, the Newcomer's Corner is written by NALP's newest members—you! The Corner is a great way to share helpful information with your peers and introduce yourself to the NALP community. Participate in the Newcomer's Corner by submitting your topic ideas and tips to MaryBeth Raju at mraju@proskauer.com. The Newcomer's Section will also submit Feature Article ideas for the 2007-2008 calendar year to the Bulletin staff. Please think about what you might be able to contribute and feel free to send your ideas along to incoming section Chairperson Eric Stern.

☞ 3. CHAIR A WORKING GROUP OR JOIN A PROJECT COMMITTEE

If you are interested in a leadership role within the Newer Professionals Section, please contact incoming Chairperson Eric Stern. We will have several exciting projects, including helping to plan the 2008 Newer Professionals Forum, and are looking for talented members of the section to lead important projects and work groups.

☞ 4. Present at the 2008 Annual Conference

Do you have strong presentation skills? As a Section, we will be asked to submit responses to the Board regarding what workshops and seminars we would like to offer at the 2008 Annual Education Conference.

* If you should have any questions or ideas, please contact the incoming Chairperson of the Newer Professionals Section, Eric J. Stern, Senior Law Career Counselor, The George Washington University Law School at ejstern@law.gwu.edu or 202-994-7340.
