

Contents

Introduction by William A. Chamberlain and Vielka V. Holness .....	5
PART I: Developing, Rethinking, Reinventing Your Own Perspective .....	7
Developing, Rethinking, Reinventing Your Own Perspective by Abbie Willard .....	9
PART II: Career Services Constituents .....	15
The Career Services Office’s Student Constituency by Gihan Fernando .....	17
Counseling the Graduate Law Degree Student by Sandra P. Buteau .....	22
Working with Alumni: How Clients and Issues Have Changed with the Economic Times by Marilyn Tucker .....	29
Building Better Ties with Faculty adapted from an article by Steven N. Hargrove .....	36
A Dean’s Perspective: Why Career Services Are Pivotal to Legal Education by Joel Seligman .....	40
The Employer Piece of the Career Services Puzzle by Kelly E. Toole .....	42
Outreach Strategies to Attract Small and Mid-Size Employers by Donna Gerson .....	47
Inside Government Hiring by David C. James .....	51
Counseling Public Interest Students — Extra Efforts, Great Rewards by Terrence Galligan .....	57
Professional Organizations: Expanded Opportunities by Janet Smith .....	63
PART III: Counseling Issues and Tools .....	69
Counseling in the Law Career Services Setting by Cathy Fitch .....	71
Counseling Students about Judicial Clerkships by Beth A. Hansen and Mary Hoagland .....	75
The Benefits of Using Career Assessments When Counseling Law Students and Alumni by Anne L. Hensley, LPC .....	81
Career Counseling for Distressed Students by Alexandra Duran .....	86
Counseling a Diverse Student Body by Deborah Howard .....	91
An Added Perspective on Diversity: Women in the Profession by Vielka V. Holness .....	97

PART IV: Skills and Strategies .....	101
Statistics: Supporting the “What, Why, When, and How” of a Career Services Office by Gail G. Peshel .....	103
Planning for the Resource Needs of the Career Services Office by Amee McKim .....	116
Overview of a Year in a Career Services Office by Mary Sheffer .....	123
The Seven Time Management Laws of Successful Career Services Directors by Gina Sauer .....	129
Legal Career Informational Programs by Beth Kirch .....	136
Dealing with the Common Myths about Career Services by Mayhugh H. (Skip) Horne III .....	141
Handling Economic Cycles by Elizabeth Armour .....	146
Off-Campus Job Fairs — A Consortium Approach by Brian D. Lewis .....	150
Taking Your Show on the Road by Susan Gainen and Robin Carbone .....	160
Avoiding Burnout: Advice from Your Colleagues .....	172
PART V: Information Management .....	179
Database Effectiveness by Paul Woo .....	181
The Benefits and Perils of E-mail by Katie Schendel .....	185
Internet Job Searching — Career Perspectives by Gina D. Rowsam .....	189
Career Services Publications in the Digital Age by Phyllis B. Burkhard .....	194
PART VI: A New Law School’s Perspective .....	199
Ten Career Services Strategy Steps for Young Law Schools by Kirsten ButleRitchie .....	201
PART VII: Ethical Issues, Legal Challenges .....	207
Ethics 101 for Career Services and Recruitment .....	209
Keeping the Legal System Honest — Legal Aspects of Career Services Counseling by Kim Fields .....	216
An Overview of Legal Issues in Recruitment and Hiring by Rochelle K. Kaplan, Esq. .....	224
PART VIII: Final Words .....	235
Resources .....	236
Editors’ Note .....	240