

2009 NALP Annual Education Conference

Reinventing Work at Law Firms: Innovative Work/Life Programs and Strategies to Make Them Succeed

Additional Resources

Deborah Epstein Henry, "Creative Ways for Law Firms to Survive the Economic Downturn," The Balance Beam (2007 – 2008), http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/newsletter_08.pdf.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "The Elusive Balance: Tips to Assess and Meet Your Work-Life Needs," The Woman Advocate, A Newsletter of the American Bar Association, Section of Litigation (Summer 2008), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art13.pdf>.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "Facing the FACTS: Introducing Work/Life Choices for All Firm Lawyers Within the Billable Hour Model," Diversity & the Bar (November/December 2007), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art10.pdf>.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "Prevailing Principles to Make Reduced Hour Schedules Succeed," Diversity & the Bar (September/October 2007), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art9.pdf>.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "Stepping Into Your Shoes: It's Time for Job Shares in Law Firms," Diversity & the Bar (July/August 2007), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art7.pdf>.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "The Business Case for Flexibility: Why Flexible and Reduced Hours are in a Legal Employer's Financial Interest," Diversity & the Bar (March/April 2007), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art4.pdf>.

Deborah Epstein Henry, "Comeback Lawyers: A Look at Why Re-Entry is a Hot Work/Life Balance Topic," Diversity & the Bar (January/February 2007), <http://www.flextimelawyers.com/pdf/art11.pdf>.