

Rising 2L Choices: What are you considering?

January:

- Greenhalgh Mock Trial Competition (January 17 – 20)
- Lawyers in Balance (January 23)

February:

- SBA Nominations (February 6 – 10)
- Peer Advisor (February 10)
- Resident Fellow (February 10)
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Competition (February 13 – 18)
- Fall Semester Abroad (February 27)

March:

- Beaudry Moot Court Competition (February 27 – March 5)
- Clinic Applications (March 27)
- Student Organization Elections (ongoing)

April:

- Law Fellow (mid-April)
- Senior Writing Fellow (mid-April)
- Student Organization Elections (ongoing)
- Course Schedule available (April 11)
- Equal Justice Foundation (April 11)

May/June:

- Law Journal Write-On (May 18 – 29)
- Pre-registration (May 23 – June 4)

For each opportunity, ask yourself:

1. Which of my professional, academic and personal goals does this further?
2. What will I actually be doing?
3. What are the trade-offs?
4. Do I need this experience or credential?
5. What research do I need to do?
6. What skills will this help me develop?

Don't Forget! Part-time employment, Summer Job Search, Externship/Internship, Networking, Student Organization Involvement, Pro bono/Community Service, Outside Interests, Social Life/Fitness/Wellness